

For Immediate Release
For Information Contact:
Kristine S. George
Executive Director
410.822.8061
kgeorge@eastondaycare.org

Critchlow Adkins Children's Centers Announces "Extreme Summer" Camp Offerings

Early Bird Registration Now Available

Easton, Maryland March 3, 2015 – Critchlow Adkins Children's Centers is looking ahead to warmer temperatures with the opening of 2015 summer camp registration. "Extreme Summer 2015" includes 10 weeks of extreme fun throughout CACC's five Talbot County sites which include two locations in Easton as well as St. Michaels, Cordova and Trappe. Weekly themed activities include swimming lessons, field trips, special guests and other fun surprises, all in a safe, educational environment with CACC's team of MSDE accredited teachers and staff. Each camp session is one week in length and is programmed with a unique theme with sessions running from 6:45 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily. Costs vary by program and age. Breakfast, a lunch supplement and a snack is included.

This year's themes are: Adventure Island, Crazy Critters, Mad Scientist, Happy Birthday, America, The Great Outdoors, Little Chefs, Sports of All Sorts, Space Camp Eastern Shore, Game Show Wizard and Pirate Adventures.

"We are really excited about this year's summer camps, which are a wonderful mix of fun themes and educational programming," says Kristine George, Critchlow Adkins Executive Director. "Our MSDE accredited team of teachers has some exciting things in store for our campers this summer!"

CACC will offer several discounts for families registering their children from "Extreme Summer" 2015. An "early birds" who register their campers by April 15 will receive either a waiver of the $30 registration fee or a comparable tuition credit. A new referral program is also available which provides a free day of camp for each friend who is referred and completes at least one week of CACC camp.

Critchlow Adkins Children's Centers (CACC), Easton, is an accredited, educationally-based childcare program serving more than 450 children aged two through 12 in five locations throughout Talbot County. For more than four decades CACC has touched the lives of more than 8,000 children and adults. Each year it provides $120,000 in tuition assistance to more than 115 families.

To learn more about Critchlow Adkins Children's Centers summer camps or to register, call (410) 822-8061 or visit www.cacckids.org.

PHOTO CAPTION: Summer Chefs

Registration is now open for 10 weeks of themed camp programs in Easton, St. Michaels, Cordova and Trappe. Hosted by Critchlow Adkins Children's Centers, themes include: Adventure Island, Crazy Critters, Mad Scientist, Happy Birthday, America, The Great Outdoors, Little Chefs, Sports of All Sorts, Space Camp Eastern Shore, Game Show Wizard and Pirate Adventures. To learn more about Critchlow Adkins Children's Centers summer camps or to register, call (410) 822-8061 or visit www.cacckids.org.

PHOTO CAPTION (swimming)

Nothing beats the summer heat better than a dip in a pool. Summer campers at Critchlow Adkins Children's Centers can also receive two weeks of swimming lessons as part of the camp program. Registration is now open. To learn more or to register, call (410) 822-8061 or visit www.cacckids.org.

Critchlow Adkins Children's Centers has five locations in Talbot County and serves approximately 450 children annually ages 2 to 12. Programs include pre-school, pre-K, pre-K wrap, before-and after-school, and 10 weeks of summer camp. CACC offers a sliding fee scale based on household income and number of family members. For more information, visit www.cacckids.org or call 410.822.8061.

####